- (c) In other cases the power of attorney must be signed by the legal representative of the shareholder and by the person authorized to attend the meeting.
 - (d) A person authorized to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders must submit the written authorization before entering the meeting room.
3. Where a lawyer on behalf of the principal signs a written appointment of a representative, the appointment of such representative shall be deemed to be effective only if such written appointment is presented together with the power of attorney authorizing the lawyer (if it was not registered with the Company).
4. Except for the case stipulated in Clause 3 of this Article, the voting card of the person authorized to attend the meeting within the scope of authorization shall remain effective in any one of the following cases:
- (a) The principal dies, or his or her capacity for civil acts is lost or is restricted;
 - (b) The principal rescinds the appointment of authorization;
 - (c) The principal rescinds the authority of the [particular] person carrying out the authorization.
 - (d) This Clause shall not apply in a case where the Company receives a notice of one of the above cases prior to the time of opening of the General Meeting of Shareholders or prior to the time the meeting is reconvened.

Article 17. Change of rights

1. The change or cancellation of any special right attached to a class of preference shares shall take effect when such change or cancellation is approved by the shareholders holding at least sixty-five (65) percent of ordinary shares who are in attendance. The General Meeting of Shareholders Resolution that contains adverse changes to the rights and obligations of preference shareholders may only be ratified if it is voted for by a number of participating preference shareholders that hold at least 75% of preference shares of the same type, or approved by a number of preference shareholders that hold at least 75% of preference shares of the same type in case of questionnaire survey.
2. The organization of the meeting of shareholders holding a type of preference share to approve the change of the above rights is only valid when there are at least two (02) shareholders (or authorized representatives of the company) and hold at least one third (1/3) of the par value of the issued shares of such class. In case there are not enough delegates as mentioned above, the meeting shall be re-organized within thirty (30) days after and the holders of shares of such class (regardless of the number of people and the number of shares) being present directly or through an authorized representative shall be deemed to be sufficient for the required number of delegates. At the meetings of shareholders holding preferred shares mentioned above, holders of shares of such class present directly or through their representatives may request secret votes. Each share of the same class has equal voting rights at the above-mentioned meetings.

3. The procedures for conducting such a separate meeting shall be conducted in the same way as stipulated in articles 19, 20 and 21 of this Charter.
4. Unless otherwise stipulated in the terms of share issues, special rights attached to various classes of shares with preference rights with respect to some or all matters relating to the distribution of profit or assets of the Company shall not be changed when the Company issues additional shares of the same class.

Article 18. Convening of General Meeting of Shareholders, agenda and notice of meeting of General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The Board of Management shall convene the General Meeting of Shareholders, or the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be convened in the cases stipulated in Article 14.4(b) or 14.4(c) of this Charter.
2. The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders must carry out the following duties:
 - (a) Prepare a list of shareholders satisfying all conditions for attending and voting at the General Meeting of Shareholders no later than five (5) days prior to the date of sending the notice of invitation to the meeting; The Company must disclose information about making a list of shareholders entitled to attend the General Meeting of Shareholders at least 20 days before the last registration date;
 - (b) Prepare the agenda and issues to be discussed at the meeting;
 - (c) Prepare data for the meeting;
 - (d) Draft resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders in accordance with the matters proposed to be discussed at the meeting;
 - (e) Determine the time and venue for holding the General Meeting of Shareholders in the event of a direct meeting and/or determine the software system used in the event of an online meeting;
 - (f) Inform and send a notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders to all shareholders entitled to attend the meeting;
 - (g) Other work to service the meeting.
3. The notice of meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be sent to all shareholders by registered means, and at the same time shall be announced on the websites of the Company, of the State Securities Commission and of the Stock Exchange (applicable to companies listed or registered for trading). The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders must send a notice to all shareholders on the list of shareholders entitled to attend, at least twenty one (21) days prior to the date of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders (calculated from the date on which the notice is validly sent or delivered, the date on which the postal charge is paid, or the date on which the notice is put in the mailbox). The agenda of the General Meeting of Shareholders and data relating to the matters to be voted on at the meeting shall be sent to the shareholders and/or published on the website of the Company. If no data is attached to the notice of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders, then the notice of invitation to the meeting must include clear guidelines on how all data or documents can be accessed by shareholders, such data to comprise:

- (a) The meeting agenda and data to be used at the meeting;
 - (b) List and detailed information about each candidate if electing members to the Board of Management or Board of Control;
 - (c) Voting cards;
 - (d) Sample form for appointing an authorized representative to attend the meeting;
 - (e) Draft resolutions on each matter on the agenda.
4. A shareholder or group of shareholders referred to in Article 12.3 of this Charter has the right to propose any issue to be included on the agenda of a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must be made in writing and sent to the Company at least three (3) business days before the opening day of the General Meeting of Shareholders. The proposal must contain the full names of the shareholders, their residential addresses, nationalities, number of their people's identity card, citizen's card, passport or other valid personal identification document in the case of individuals; and names, enterprise code numbers or establishment decisions, and head office address in the case of a shareholder being an organization; and number and class of shares held by them, and the items proposed to be included in the agenda.
5. The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders has the right to reject any proposal as set out in Clause 4 of this Article in the following cases:
- (a) The proposal was sent outside the stipulated time-limit or is incomplete or is irrelevant;
 - (b) At the time of the proposal, the shareholder or group of shareholders did not have five percent (5%) or more of the ordinary shares for a consecutive period of six months in accordance with Article 12.3 of this Charter;
 - (c) The issues proposed do not fall within the authority of the General Meeting of Shareholders for decision;
 - (d) Other cases as stipulated by law and set out in this Charter.
6. The convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall include the issues proposed in accordance with Clause 4 of this Article in the draft agenda, except in the cases specified in Clause 5 of this Article. The issues will be included in the official agenda if their inclusion is accepted by the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 19. Conditions for conducting meeting of General Meeting of Shareholders

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted when the number of attending shareholders represents more than fifty percent (50%) of the voting shares. A shareholder is considered to have attended and voted at the General Meeting of Shareholders when attending and voting in any cases as provided in Article 13.2 of this Charter.

2. Where the number of attendees required is insufficient within thirty (30) minutes after the stipulated time for opening the meeting, the convenor of the meeting shall cancel the meeting. The General Meeting of Shareholders must be reconvened within a period of thirty (30) days from the intended date of holding the first General Meeting of Shareholders. The re-convened General Meeting of Shareholders shall be conducted only when the attending members are shareholders representing at least thirty-three percent (33%) of the total voting shares.
3. Where a meeting convened for the second time is not able to be conducted due to an insufficient number of attendees required to be present thirty (30) minutes after the stipulated time for opening the meeting, the General Meeting of Shareholders may be convened for a third time within twenty (20) days from the intended date of conducting the second meeting; and in such case, the meeting shall be conducted irrespective of the number of attending shareholders representing total voting shares, and shall be deemed valid and have the right to make decisions on all issues proposed to be passed at the first General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 20. Procedures for conducting and voting at a direct meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. On the date of holding the General Meeting of Shareholders, the Company must carry out procedures to register its shareholders and must implement such registration until all shareholders who are entitled to attend the meeting and who are present have been registered.
2. Upon registration of shareholders, the Company shall issue a voting card to each shareholder or authorized representative with voting rights which states registration number, full name of shareholder, full name of authorized representative and number of votes of such shareholder. When conducting voting at the meeting, the voting cards which agree with a resolution shall be collected first, then the voting cards which do not agree, and finally there shall be a count of the overall number of votes which agree or do not agree to make a decision. The total number of votes which agree, which do not agree, and abstentions and invalid votes on each issue shall be announced by the chairman immediately after voting on such issue. The General Meeting of Shareholders shall elect the persons responsible to check the votes or to supervise the checking of votes at the request of the chairman. The number of members of the vote-counting committee shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders on the basis of a request of the chairman.
3. Any shareholder or authorized representative who comes to the General Meeting of Shareholders late shall be registered immediately and thereafter has the right to attend and vote at the meeting. The chairman is not responsible to delay the meeting so that late shareholders may register, and the effectiveness of any voting which has already been conducted before the late shareholders attended shall not be affected.
4. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall act as chairman of all meetings which are convened by the Board of Management. If the Chairman is absent or is temporarily unable to work, the remaining members of the Board of Management shall elect one of them to act as the chairman of the meeting. If there is no person able to act as chairman, the Head of the Board of Control shall arrange for the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect the chairman of the meeting from amongst the persons attending the meeting, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as the chairman of the meeting.

In other cases, the person who signed the document convening the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall arrange for the General Meeting of Shareholders to elect a chairman of the meeting, and the person with the highest number of votes shall act as the chairman of the meeting.

5. The agenda and issues to be discussed at the General Meeting of Shareholders must be passed at the opening session, and the agenda must set out the specific time to be spent on each issue at the meeting.
6. The chairman of the meeting has the right to organize necessary activities to run the General Meeting of Shareholders in a valid and orderly manner or to enable the meeting to reflect the wishes of the majority of attendees.
7. The chairman of the meeting may adjourn it if there is agreement from or on request by the General Meeting of Shareholders for which sufficient shareholders are present, for the reasons set out in Article 146.8 of the Law on Enterprises.
8. The Convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders may require the shareholders or authorized representatives attending the General Meeting of Shareholders to be checked or be subject to lawful and reasonable security measures. Where any shareholder or authorized representative refuses to comply with the inspection rules or security measures mentioned above, the Convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders may, after careful consideration, reject or expel such shareholder or representative from the General Meeting of Shareholders.
9. The Convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders may, after careful consideration, take appropriate measures to:
 - (a) Arrange seating at the venue of the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders;
 - (b) Ensure safety for all persons present at the venue of the meeting;
 - (c) Facilitate the shareholders to attend (or continue to attend) the meeting. The Convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders has full powers to change the above measures and take all other necessary measures which may include issuance of entry permits or use of other selected forms.
10. If the meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders takes any of the above measures, then the Convenor of the General Meeting of Shareholders may, when determining the venue of the meeting:
 - (a) Notify that the meeting will be conducted at the venue stated in the notice and the chairman of the meeting shall be present there (“Official Venue of the Meeting”);

- (b) Arrange and organize matters so that the shareholders or authorized representatives unable to attend the meeting in accordance with this Article or the persons who wish to attend at a venue different from the Official Venue of the Meeting can attend the meeting at the same time;

A notice of holding a meeting is not required to state the detailed measures for holding it in accordance with this Article.

- 11. In this Charter (unless the context requires otherwise), all shareholders shall be deemed to attend the meeting at the Official Venue of the Meeting.
- 12. The Company shall hold the General Meeting of Shareholders at least once per year. The annual General Meeting of Shareholders shall not be held by way of collection of written opinions.

Article 21. Procedures for conducting and voting at an online meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders

- 1. The General Meeting of Shareholders can meet and cast votes through online meetings. The attendance and voting of shareholders are carried out on the software system selected by the Company (the "Software system"). Voting results of shareholders through the Software system have the same validity as the voting results at the direct meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 2. Before the opening of the meeting, the Software system will be opened and shareholders will register attendance at the online meeting by logging into the Software System in accordance with the information and instructions attached to the notice of invitation. Shareholders successfully logging into the Software System are considered eligible to attend and vote online at the General Meeting of Shareholders.
- 3. Shareholders exercise their right to express opinions, vote and elect via the Software System in accordance with the instructions attached to the notice of invitation. Shareholders may conduct online voting from the time of successful login into the Software System and online voting results are recorded upon completion of voting for each agenda issue or upon completion of voting for each agenda issue (the "End of voting period"). In the event that shareholders have successfully logged into the Software system but do not vote online or lose connection (due to connection error, network error, equipment problem) prior to the End of voting period, the Software system will record the attendance of the shareholders and deem agenda issues which have not been voted by the shareholders as no comments/ not voting any other candidates/ other comments.
- 4. If shareholders log out of the Software system or lose their connection but then re-login or reconnect to the Software system prior to the End of voting period, shareholders may continue to vote for the remaining issues and the effectiveness of any voting which has already been conducted will not be affected.

5. In case the online General Meeting of Shareholders lose connection (due to connection error, network error, equipment problem or problem of the Software system), the chairman of the Meeting will decide to suspend the online meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders for troubleshooting with an appropriate period of time depending on the actual situation.
6. In case the Company holds a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders in the form of a combination of direct and online meeting, shareholders' attendance and voting results will be recorded in only one form (either direct or online), whichever comes first.

Article 22. Passing decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on the following issues shall be passed when agreed by sixty-five percent (65%) or more of the total votes of the shareholders with voting rights attending the General Meeting of Shareholders:
 - (a) Supplementation and amendment of the Company's Charter;
 - (b) Types of shares and total amount of each type;
 - (c) Division, separation, consolidation, merger or conversion of the Company;
 - (d) Restructuring and dissolution (liquidation) of the Company and appointment of a liquidator;
 - (e) Transactions of investment or selling assets of the Company with a value of thirty-five percent (35%) or more of the total value of assets of the Company recorded in the most recent audited financial statements.
2. Election of membership to the Board of Management and Board of Control must be implemented in accordance with article 148.3 of the Law on Enterprises.
3. Except for the cases stipulated in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Article, decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders on other issues shall be passed when agreed by more than fifty percent (50%) of the total votes of the shareholders with voting rights attending the General Meeting of Shareholders.
4. Resolutions of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be approved when they are passed by 100% of the total number of votes of shareholders and shall be immediately valid and effective even if the sequence and procedures for passing resolutions are not correctly implemented as required by regulations.

Article 23. Authority and procedures for collection of shareholders' written opinions in order to pass decisions of the General Meeting of Shareholders

The authority and procedures for collecting shareholders' written opinions in order to pass a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders shall be implemented in accordance with the following provisions:

1. The Board of Management has the right to collect shareholders' written opinions in order to pass a decision of the General Meeting of Shareholders if considered necessary in the interests of the Company.

2. The Board of Management must prepare written opinion forms, a draft of the resolution of the General Meeting of Shareholders, and other documents explaining the draft resolution. The Board of Management must ensure it sends and announces the documents to the shareholders within a reasonable period for their review and voting, and must send same at least ten (10) days prior to the expiry date for receipt of written opinion forms. The requirements and method of sending the written opinion forms and any attached documents shall be implemented in accordance with the provision in Article 18.3 of this Charter.
3. The written opinion form must contain the following basic details:
 - (a) Name, head office address and enterprise code number of the Company;
 - (b) Purpose of collecting written opinions;
 - (c) Full name, permanent address, nationality and number of people's identity card, citizen's card, passport or other lawful personal identification in respect of a shareholder being an individual; and the name, enterprise code number or number of the establishment decision, and head office address of a shareholder being an organization or the full name, permanent address, nationality and number of people's identity card, citizen's card, passport or other lawful personal identification of the authorized representative of the shareholder being an organization; and the number of shares of each class and number of votes of the shareholder;
 - (d) Issues on which it is necessary to obtain opinions in order to pass a decision;
 - (e) Voting options comprising agreement, non-agreement or abstention with respect to each issue on which it is necessary to obtain opinions;
 - (f) Time-limit within which the completed written opinion form must be returned to the Company;
 - (g) Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Management and of the legal representative of the Company.
4. Any completed written opinion form must bear the signature of a shareholder being an individual, or of the legal representative of a shareholder being an organization, or of the authorized individual or of the legal representative of the authorized organization.
5. A written opinion form may be returned to the Company by the following methods:
 - (a) By sending a letter in a sealed envelope, and no person may have the right to open the envelope prior to the vote counting;
 - (b) By sending a fax or email, in which case the form must be kept confidential up until the time of vote counting.

Any completed written form received by the Company after the expiry of the time-limit stated in the written opinion form shall be invalid, as shall be any form sent by letter which is announced prior to the time of vote counting, and any form sent by fax or email and announced prior to the time of vote counting. Any written form which is not returned shall be deemed not to have participated in the voting.

6. The Board of Management shall conduct the vote-counting and then prepare minutes of the vote-counting in the presence of the Board of Control or of a shareholder not holding a managerial position in the Company. The minutes of vote-counting shall contain the following basic details:
 - (a) Name, head office address and enterprise code number of the Company;
 - (b) Purpose of collection of written opinions and issues on which it is necessary to obtain opinions in order to pass the resolution;
 - (c) Number of shareholders with total number of votes having participated in the vote, classifying the votes into valid and invalid and mentioning the method by which the votes were returned, and including an appendix being a list of the shareholders having participated in the vote;
 - (d) Total number of votes for, against and abstentions on each issue voted on;
 - (e) Issues which have been passed;
 - (f) Full name and signature of the Chairman of the Board of Management, of the legal representative of the Company and of the person who supervised the vote-counting.

The members of the Board of Management and the persons who counted and supervised the vote-counting shall be jointly liable for the truthfulness and accuracy of the minutes of vote-counting, and shall be jointly liable for any loss and damage arising from a decision which is passed due to an untruthful or inaccurate vote count.

7. The minutes shall be sent to all shareholders within fifteen (15) days after completion of the vote count. If the Company has a website, then the requirement on sending the minutes may be replaced by their publication on such website within twenty four (24) hours after completion of the vote count.
8. Written opinion forms which were returned, the minutes of the vote count, the full text of the resolution passed and any related documents or data sent with all of the written opinion forms must be archived at the head office of the Company.
9. A resolution which is passed by way of collecting shareholders' written opinions must be approved by the shareholders owned more than fifty percent (50%) of the total number of voting shares and shall have the same validity as a resolution passed at a meeting of the General Meeting of Shareholders.

Article 24. Minutes of meeting of General Meeting of Shareholders

1. Meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders must be minuted and may be sound recorded or recorded and stored in other electronic forms. Minutes must be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be in English, and must contain the following main details:

4. The Board of Management must make a report to the General Meeting of Shareholders on its activities, in particular supervision by such Board of the General Director and other managers within a financial year. If the Board of Management fails to submit such report to the General Meeting of Shareholders, the annual financial statements of the Company shall be deemed invalid and not to have been approved by the Board of Management.
5. Unless otherwise stipulated by law and this Charter, the Board of Management may authorize lower level staff and managers to deal with work on behalf of the Company.

Article 29. Remuneration, salary and other benefits of members of Board of Management

1. Members of the Board of Management (excluding authorized representatives) are entitled to remuneration for their work in their capacity as members of such Board. The total remuneration for the Board of Management shall be determined by the General Meeting of Shareholders and shall be distributed to members of such Board as agreed within the Board or shall be distributed amongst all members equally if the Board fails to reach an agreement.
2. The total amount of money paid to each member of the Board of Management comprising remuneration, expenses, commission, share options and other benefits conferred by the Company, its subsidiaries, affiliated companies and other companies in which the member of the Board of Management is the capital contribution representative must be disclosed in detail in the annual report of the Company. The remuneration of members of the Board of Management must be set out in a separate section of the annual financial statements of the Company.
3. Any member of the Board of Management who holds a managerial position or who works on a sub- committee of the Board of Management or who performs other work which is, in the opinion of the Board of Management, beyond the scope of the normal duties of a member of the Board of Management may be paid additional remuneration in the form of a lump sum wage on each occasion, or salary, commission, profit percentage or other form as decided by the Board of Management.
4. Members of the Board of Management are entitled to reimbursement of all travel and accommodation expenses and other reasonable expenses paid by them when performing their responsibilities as a member of such Board, including expenses arising out of attending meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders, of the Board of Management or of sub-committees of such Board.

Article 30. Chairman of Board of Management

1. The General Meeting of Shareholders or the Board of Management must select one of the members of the Board of Management to act as Chairman. The Chairman of the Board of Management shall not concurrently hold the title of General Director (Director) of the Company.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Management is responsible to prepare the agenda and data for, and to convene and chair meetings of such Board; and to chair the General Meeting of Shareholders; and concurrently has other rights and responsibilities stipulated in the Law on Enterprises and this Charter.
3. The Chairman of the Board of Management is responsible to ensure that the Board of Management sends annual financial statements, operational reports of the Company, audit reports and inspection reports of the Board of Management to the shareholders at the General Meeting of Shareholders.
4. The Chairman of the Board of Management may be dismissed pursuant to a decision of such Board. If the Chairman of the Board of Management resigns or is dismissed, the Board of Management must elect another person for replacement within a period of ten (10) days.
5. In case the Chairman of the Board of Management is not present or is not able to perform his duties, he/she shall authorize another member in writing to perform the rights and obligations of the Chairman of the Board of Management in accordance with the Company's Charter. In case no one is authorized or the Chairman of the Board of Management is dead, missing, held in police custody, imprisoned, detained in a mandatory rehabilitation center or correctional institution, has fled the residence, has limited capacity or is incapacitated, has difficulties controlling his/her behaviors, is prohibited by the Court from holding certain positions or doing certain works, the remaining members shall elect one of them to hold the position of Chairman of the Board of Management under the majority principle until a new decision is issued by the Board of Management.

Article 31. Meetings of Board of Management

1. If the Board of Management elects the Chairman, the initial meeting of a term of the Board of Management in order to elect the Chairman and to pass other resolutions within its authority must be conducted within a time-limit of seven (7) business days from the date of completion of the election of the Board of Management for that term. Such meeting shall be convened by the member who obtains the highest number or percentage of votes. If two or more members obtain the same highest number or percentage of votes, such members shall elect by a majority vote a person amongst them to convene the meeting.
2. The Chairman of the Board of Management must convene regular and extraordinary meetings of the Board of Management, and must prepare the agenda, time and venue of a meeting within at least five (5) business days before the proposed date of such meeting. The Chairman may convene a meeting at any time considered necessary, but there must be at least one meeting every quarter.

3. The Chairman of the Board of Management must convene a meeting of the Board of Management when any of the following entities makes a written request stating the purpose of the meeting and the issues to be discussed, and [the meeting] must not be delayed without a legitimate reason:
 - (a) Board of Control;
 - (b) General Director or at least five managers;
 - (c) Independent member of the Board of Management;
 - (d) At least two (2) members of the Board of Management;
 - (e) In other cases (if any).
4. The Chairman of the Board of Management must convene a meeting of such Board within seven (7) business days after the date of receipt of a request set out in Clause 3 above. If a meeting is not convened as requested, then the Chairman shall be liable for any loss and damage caused to the Company; the person making the request as referred to in Clause 3 of this Article may then himself/herself convene a meeting of the Board.
5. Where the independent auditor makes a request to conduct an audit of the financial statements of the Company, the Chairman of the Board of Management must convene a meeting of the Board of Management in order to discuss the audit report and status of the Company.
6. Meetings of the Board of Management shall be conducted at the head office of the Company or at another address in Vietnam or abroad as decided by the Chairman of the Board and agreed by the Board of Management.
7. The notice of a meeting of the Board of Management must be sent to the members of such Board at least five (5) business days before holding the meeting; the members of the Board of Management may refuse the notice of invitation in writing and such refusal may take retroactive effect. The notice of the meeting of the Board of Management must be in writing and in Vietnamese, and must provide complete information about the agenda, time and venue of the meeting, accompanied by necessary documents regarding the issues to be discussed and voted on at the meeting and voting cards for the members of such Board.

The notice of invitation shall be sent by post, fax, email or other method guaranteed to reach the contact address of each member of the Board of Management and Members of Board of Control registered with the Company.

8. Meetings of the Board of Management shall be conducted if at least three-quarters of the number of members of such Board are present in person or via their representatives (being authorized representatives) if the majority of members of such Board so agree.

If the number of attending members is insufficient as stipulated, the meeting must be re-convened within seven (7) days from the proposed date of the first meeting. The re-convened meeting shall be conducted if more than half of the number of members of the Board of Management attend.

9. A meeting of the Board of Management may be held by way of a conference call between the members of the Board when all or a number of members are at different places, provided that each attending member is able:

- (a) To hear each other member of the Board of Management expressing opinions at the meeting;
- (b) To express his/her opinions at the same time as other attending members.

Communication between the members may be implemented directly via telephone or by other means of communication or by a combination of such means. The members of the Board of Management who attend such a meeting shall be deemed physically present at such meeting. The venue of the meeting to be held in accordance with this provision shall be the venue where the group with the largest number of members of the Board gathers, or shall be the venue where the chairman of the meeting is present.

Decisions to be passed at a meeting via telephone which is duly held and conducted shall take effect immediately after the closing of the meeting, but must be confirmed by the signatures on the minutes from all attending members of the Board of Management.

10. Members of the Board of Management may send their voting cards to the meeting by letter, facsimile or email; if sent by letter, they must be sent in a sealed envelope and reach the Chairman of the Board no later than one (1) hour prior to commencement of the meeting. Voting cards may only be opened in the presence of all people attending the meeting.

11. Voting

- (a) Except for Clause 11(b) of this Article, each member of the Board of Management or his or her authorized person pursuant to Clause 8 of this Article and who is present in his or her capacity as an individual at a meeting of the Board of Management shall have one vote;
- (b) A member of the Board of Management is not permitted to vote on any contract, transaction or proposal in which such member or any related person of such member has an interest which conflicts or possibly conflicts with the interests of the Company. A member of the Board of Management shall not be included in the quorum required to be present to hold a meeting of such Board regarding decisions on which such member does not have the right to vote;
- (c) Pursuant to Clause 11(d) of this Article, when an issue arises at a meeting of the Board of Management relating to the interests of a member of such Board or relating to the voting right of a member which is not resolved by voluntary waiver of the voting right of the relevant member of the Board of Management, such issue shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting for decision. The decision of the chairman on such issue shall be final, except where the nature or scope of the interest of the relevant member of the Board of Management has not been fully announced;

- (d) Any member of the Board of Management who benefits from any contract stipulated in articles 41.5(a) and 41.5(b) of this Charter shall be deemed to have a material interest in such contract;
 - (e) Members of Board of Control have the right to attend meetings of the Board of Management and to take part in discussions but do not have any voting rights.
12. Any member of the Board of Management who directly or indirectly benefits from a contract or transaction signed or intended to be signed with the Company and is aware that he/she has an interest in such contract or transaction is responsible to disclose the nature and content of such interest at the meeting where the Board considers the signing of such contract or transaction for the first time. Where a member of the Board of Management is unaware that such member and his/her related persons have an interest at the time a contract or transaction is signed with the Company, such member must publicly announce his/her related interests at the first meeting of the Board of Management to be held after such member becomes aware that he/she has or will have an interest in the relevant contract or transaction.
 13. The Board of Management shall pass decisions and issue resolutions on the basis of the consent of the majority of members of such Board present. Where the number of votes for and against are equal, then the vote of the Chairman of the Board of Management shall be the deciding vote.
 14. A resolution by way of collection of written opinions shall be approved on the basis of the consent of the majority of members of the Board of Management who have voting rights. Such resolution shall have the same effect and validity as a resolution passed by the members of the Board of Management at a meeting.
 15. The Chairman of the Board of Management is responsible to deliver the minutes of a meeting of the Board to the members, and such minutes shall be authentic evidence of the work carried out at such meeting unless there is an objection to the contents of the minutes provided within ten (10) days from the date of delivery. The minutes of a meeting of the Board of Management must be prepared in Vietnamese and may also be in English, and must bear the signatures of the Chairman and the person preparing the minutes.

Article 32. Sub-committees of Board of Management

1. The Board of Management may establish subsidiary sub-committees to be responsible for policies on development, personnel, salaries and bonuses, and internal audit. The Board of Management shall decide the number of members of any sub-committee which must be at least three (3) and must include a member of the Board and an external member. Independent members of the Board and non-managerial members of the Board must constitute the majority of members of a sub-committee, and one of such people shall be appointed as Head of the sub-committee pursuant to a decision of the Board of Management. Activities of sub-committees must comply with regulations of the Board of Management, and resolutions of a sub-committee shall take effect only when the majority of members attending and voting at the meeting of the sub-committee are members of the Board of Management.

2. Implementation of decisions of the Board of Management, of sub-committees under the Board of Management or of a person with the status of member of a sub-committee of the Board of Management must comply with applicable law and provisions in this Charter.

Article 33. Person responsible for corporate governance

1. The Board of Management must appoint at least one (1) person to act as the person in charge of corporate governance in order to assist corporate governance to be carried out effectively. The term of office of such person shall be decided by the Board of Management, but shall be a maximum five (5) years.
2. The person in charge of corporate governance must satisfy the following criteria:
 - (a) Have knowledge and understanding of the law;
 - (b) Not concurrently work for the independent auditor currently auditing the financial statements of the Company;
 - (c) Other criteria stipulated by law, this Charter and decisions of the Board of Management.
3. The Board of Management may dismiss the person in charge of Corporate Governance but not contrary to the applicable law on labour. The Board of Management may appoint an assistant to the person in charge of corporate governance from time to time.
4. The person in charge of corporate governance has the following rights and obligations:
 - (a) To advise the Board of Management on organizing meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and on relevant work as between the Company and shareholders;
 - (b) To prepare meetings of the Board of Management, of the Board of Control and of the General Meeting of Shareholders as requested by the Board of Management or Board of Control;
 - (c) To advise on meeting procedures;
 - (d) To attend all meetings;
 - (e) To advise on procedures for formulating resolutions of the Board of Management in compliance with the law;
 - (f) To provide financial information, copies of minutes of the Board of Management and other information to members of the Board of Management and of the Board of Control;
 - (g) To supervise and report to the Board of Management on activities being disclosure of information by the Company;
 - (h) To maintain confidentiality of information in accordance with law and this Charter;
 - (i) Other rights and obligations as stipulated by law and this Charter.

4. Remuneration, salaries and other benefits of the members of the Board of Control shall be decided by the General Meeting of Shareholders. The members of the Board of Control shall be reimbursed for their accommodation, meals, travel and other reasonable expenses when they attend meetings of the Board of Control or carry out other activities of the Board of Control.

CHAPTER X: RESPONSIBILITIES OF MEMBERS OF THE BOARD OF MANAGEMENT, MEMBERS OF BOARD OF CONTROL, GENERAL DIRECTOR AND OTHER MANAGERS

Article 40. Responsibility to be prudent

Members of the Board of Management, Members of Board of Control, the General Director and other managers are responsible to perform their duties including duties in their capacity as members of a sub-committee of the Board of Management, honestly, prudently and in the interests of the Company.

Article 41. Responsibility to be honest and avoid conflicts of interest

1. Members of the Board of Management, Members of Board of Control, the General Director and other managers must publicly disclose their relevant interests in accordance with Article 164 of the Law on Enterprises and other laws.
2. Members of the Board of Management, Members of Board of Control, the General Director and other managers are not permitted to use business opportunities profitable to the Company for personal purposes; and at the same time are not permitted to use information obtained by virtue of their position for their personal interests or for the interests of other organizations or individuals.
3. Members of the Board of Management, Members of Board of Control, the General Director and other managers are obliged to notify the Board of Management of all interests which may conflict with the interests of the Company and to which they may be entitled via other economic legal entities, transactions or individuals.
4. The Company shall not provide any loan or guarantee to any member of the Board of Management, Member of Board of Control, the General Director, other manager or their related persons or to a legal entity in which the above-mentioned persons have financial interests, except where the public company and the organization related to such member are companies within the same group or companies operating in accordance with a group of companies, parent company – subsidiary, or an economic group and specialized branch law contains some other provision.
5. A contract or transaction between the Company and one or more members of the Board of Management, a Member of Board of Control, the General Director, other manager or their related persons, or a company, partner, association or organization of which the member of the Board of Management, Member of Board of Control, General Director, other manager or their related person are members or are involved in terms of financial interests shall not be invalid in the following cases:

- (a) With respect to a contract with a value less than thirty five cent (35%) of the total value of assets recorded in the most recent financial statements, the important factors of the contract or transaction as well as the relationship and interest of such member of the Board of Management, Member of Board of Control, General Director or other manager have been reported to the Board of Management; and at the same time, the Board of Management has in good faith permitted implementation of such contract or transaction by a majority vote of members of the Board of Management who do not have any related interest;
- (b) With respect to a contract with a value of equal to or greater than 35%, or the transaction results in a total transaction value arising within 12 months from the date of the first transaction with a value of 35% or more of the total value of assets recorded in the most recent financial statements, the important factors of the contract or transaction as well as the relationship and interest of such member of the Board of Management, Member of Board of Control, General Director or other manager have been disclosed to the shareholders who do not have any related interest and have the voting right with respect to such matter, and such shareholders have voted in favour of such contract or transaction;
- (c) Such contract or transaction is considered as fair and reasonable by an independent consultancy organization and in all respects relates to the shareholders of the Company as at the time such transaction or contract is permitted to be executed by the Board of Management or the General Meeting of Shareholders;

Members of the Board of Management, Members of Board of Control, the General Director and other managers and their related persons must not use information of the Company which has not yet been permitted to be disclosed, and must not disclose information to others in order to implement related transactions.

Article 42. Responsibilities to compensate for loss

1. Members of the Board of Management, Members of Board of Control, the General Director and other managers who breach their obligations and responsibilities to be honest and prudent or who fail to fulfil their obligations with due diligence and professional capability, must be liable for any loss and damage caused by their breach.
2. The Company shall pay compensation to any person who has been, is or is likely to become a related party in a claim, suit or legal proceeding (including civil and administrative cases other than those initiated by the Company) if such person was or is a member of the Board of Management, a manager, employee or authorized representative of the Company, or such person acted or is acting at the request of the Company in the capacity of a member of the Board of Management, a Member of Board of Control, the General Director, other manager, employee or authorized representative of the Company, provided that such person acted honestly, prudently and diligently in the best interests of the Company or not contrary to the best interests of the Company on the basis of compliance with law, and there is no evidence that such person committed a breach of his/her responsibilities.

3. When implementing the functions, duties or work authorized by the Company, any member of the Board of Management, a Member of Board of Control, the General Director or other manager, an employee or an authorized representative of the Company is entitled to compensation paid by the Company when they become a related party in a claim, suit or legal proceeding (excluding legal actions initiated by the Company) in the following cases:
 - (a) They acted honestly, prudently and diligently in the interests of the Company and not contrary to the best interests of the Company;
 - (b) They complied with law and there is no evidence that they failed to perform their responsibilities.
4. Expenses being compensation shall comprise expenses arising (including legal fees), expenses being the judgement [amount], fines and other items payables actually arising or deemed reasonable when dealing with such cases within the framework permitted by law. The Company may purchase insurance for such persons in order to avoid [the Company itself] having to pay compensation.

CHAPTER XI: RIGHT TO INVESTIGATE BOOKS AND RECORDS OF COMPANY

Article 43. Right to investigate books and records

1. A shareholder or group of shareholders as referred to in Article 26.2 of this Charter has the right, in person or via an authorized person, to send a written request to inspect the list of shareholders and minutes of meetings of the General Meeting of Shareholders and to copy or extract such records during business hours at the head office of the Company.
